Winifred Schmid

Prairie View Care Center is privileged to announce its March Resident-in-the-Spotlight, Winifred Marie Schmid. She has been a member of our family since September 2004.

Some of her favorites include peanut butter cookies, the color blue, and spending holidays with the children and family. Some memories from the past include traveling and neighborhood parties.

When raising her family, Winnie also kept busy as a bookkeeper and accountant. She is happily married to Everett Schmid. Together they have raised three beautiful children.

Activities/hobbies from the past include traveling, dancing, concerts, ceramics, and time with the family. Feel free to come down and congratulate Winnie. We are proud to have her as part of our family.

Recognizing Our Finest

Cheryl Hughes is our Employee of the Month. She has been a CNA at Prairie View Care Center for seven years. She has been the manager of our special care unit since it opened in September of 2001. Cheryl says she loves every aspect of her work in the unit. We know this to be true because the contented smiles of the residents reflect that love.

Cheryl also has another passion –that of taking in stray animals. This is evident by the menagerie of pets in her household.

Cheryl is an EMT and does “in home care” for people in our area. In her spare time, you can find Cheryl entertaining with karaoke. Cheryl has a son and grandson in California who she doesn't get to see nearly enough. Congratulations!! We're proud of you and the job you do!

This month we are saying good-bye to Claire Callan, and we welcome Mary Jo Vetter to PVCC.
